

POPE BESTOWS RED HATS ON THE NEW CARDINALS

St. Peter's Thronged by Brilliant Assemblage at Public Consistory.

ROME, Dec. 19.—The Pope today personally conducted the ceremony of the public consistory, which was attended by thousands of invited persons, especially foreigners, including many Americans.

Thousands of tickets had been distributed for this ceremony, and a dense crowd packed the corridor, hall and tribune, and reached almost to the foot of the throne itself, while the piazza of St. Peter's was a moving mass of women in black with bare heads, men in dress clothes, priests, monks, soldiers, carabinieri, nuns, spectators and Cardinals, some on foot, others in carriages, all with eyes fixed on the great bronze doors, which were the portals to the promised spectacle.

Those extraneous to the ceremony gathered in special places inside the Vatican, while the Cardinals, prelates and court personages assembled in another hall to wait the Pontiff.

At one end of the Sala Regia stood the Papal throne, flanked by the Cardinals' stalls, and at the right were places for the Bishops; opposite were special tribunes for the aristocracy and diplomatic body and underneath standing room for those ticket-holders fortunate enough to get a place.

The procession was headed by the Swiss Guards, followed by many persons of note. The Pope was dressed in complete Pontifical robes, mitre on head, and with raised hands, in the familiar position he gave blessing as he went. Following the Holy Father came a long train of personages, together with the Sistine choir, who sang as the procession proceeded under the direction of their head, Abbe Perosi.

The Pope mounted the throne amidst a profound silence, the Cardinals going to their seats, and the others taking the positions assigned for them. The new Cardinals were then introduced, and while they were kneeling, one by one, at the Pontiff's feet, and he repeated the formula accipe calicem rubrum, minister of ceremonies held a red hat over their heads. They then, separately, after the papal embrace, went to each of the Cardinals and received a fraternal salute. This ceremony over, Pius X. rose, and after bestowing the Apostolic blessing, slowly withdrew, the procession reforming as an escort.

After having returned thanks before the altar of the Sistine Chapel, the new Cardinals joined the others in the Hall of the Consistory, where Pius X. held a short supplementary Consistory. At the Consistory the Pope officially announced the appointment of the Rev. D. F. Feehan, formerly pastor of St. Bernard's Church, Pittsburgh, as Bishop of Fall River, Mass.

PARTICULAR AS TO NEIGHBORS, BUT TOOK HER MONEY

Such a Nice-Looking Man He Was, Too, Says the Robbed Janitress.

There's a vacant flat at No. 169 Sanis street, Brooklyn. Mrs. Annie Gardner, the janitress of the building, has tried hard to rent it. This afternoon a nice-looking man called to look the place over. He was shown the flat. Mrs. Gardner went into detail as to all of the equipments of the would-be tenant, asked many questions as to the behavior of the other tenants.

The stranger decided he would take the apartment and followed Mrs. Gardner down to her rooms on the first floor to complete all arrangements. Stripping inside the door of the janitress's room the man drew a big revolver, pointed it at Mrs. Gardner's head and demanded all the money she had in the house. The janitress scraped up $25, handed it to the hold-up artist and then fainted.

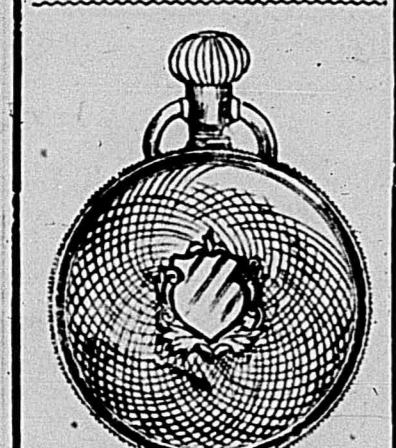

Some little time later Mrs. Gardner got around to the Fulton street Police station and told of her experience. A number of detectives are now looking for the man who was so particular about the manners of his prospective neighbors. He is described as being dark, smooth shaven and standing about five and a half feet in height.

OSBORNE ANGERS CITY MAGISTRATE

Forestalls Corrigan in Disposition of Bail Case, and Defies Him.

J. H. Sulzberger, the banker and broker who was arrested two weeks ago, charged with bribing a witness not to appear before the Grand Jury, was arraigned before Magistrate Corrigan in the Tombs Court this afternoon on three additional charges. These are of attempting to induce a witness to leave the State, one of forgery in the third degree, and one of grand larceny.

James W. Osborne, Sulzberger's counsel, declared to the magistrate that he would waive examination on the new charges. He argued that bringing the charges was merely oppression on the District Attorney's part, as the complaints had been presented to the November Grand Jury and thrown out. The lawyer added, angrily, that he had anticipated that the bail would be increased from $25,000, and his client had brought the cash with him.

"You must express yourself," cried Magistrate Corrigan.

"Well, see if you can stop me," retorted Osborne. "I know as much about the Penal Code as some people."

The Magistrate was inarticulate in rage, and ordered the bail to be increased. Then the lawyer and his client went to the City Chamberlain's office and deposited the additional bail.

WANTS $50,000 FOR WRONGFUL ADVICE.

President Cromwell, of Richmond, Sued by Former Postmaster of Dongan Hill.

George Cromwell, President of the Borough of Richmond, is the defendant in a strange suit which went to trial this afternoon in the Brooklyn Supreme Court. Wilson A. Cleveland, former Postmaster at Dongan Hill, S. I., is asking damages of $50,000 from Mr. Cromwell on the ground that the Borough President gave him false and wrongful advice which landed him in jail.

Mr. Cleveland was arrested and indicted for grand larceny, some time ago, it being alleged that he had unlawfully acquired $5 from George J. Blimley. Sentence was suspended. Then he was arrested for petty larceny, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment. He alleges in his petition that, relying on Mr. Cromwell's legal abilities and the personal and political friendship existing between them, he was induced to lead guilty to an offense of which he was innocent and which he could not have been convicted.

Prices on all Holiday Goods Go Down to the Lowest Point in the History of the Trade.

THESE prices not only apply to holiday goods, but everything in our entire store. We've sounded the tocsin that removes the price barrier—brought prices on high class, thoroughly dependable merchandise down to the lowest point in the history of the trade. We've made it possible to purchase gifts in a store where the very name insures a standard of quality that impresses the recipient, at prices that are irrefutably less than you'll pay elsewhere for medium class merchandise whose actual worth is evidenced at a glance.
